

REES SCHOOL

REES ARTS NEWSLETTER

Volume 1, Issue 1

March 2003

LOOK AT OUR REES
ARTISTS!

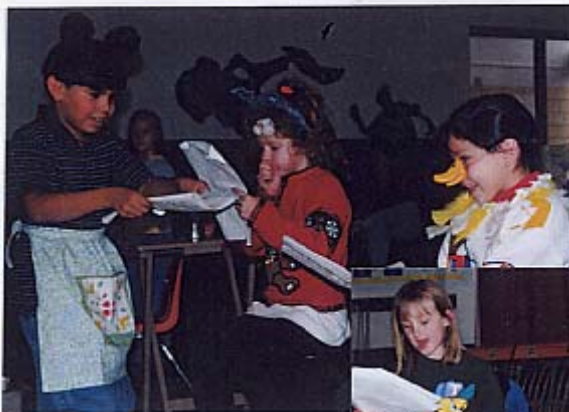

Gerson, Annie, and Michelle perform their Reader's Theater.

Margaret Crowell directs Kailey Johnson in their Reader's Theater while A.J.,
Kyler, and Spencer look on.

Scott Jensen acts his part in
"The Tortoise and The Hare."

Natalie, Gabe, and A.J. Perform their parts in "The Treasure."

< Marilyn Berrett demonstrates how the bones move in one of her dance lessons.

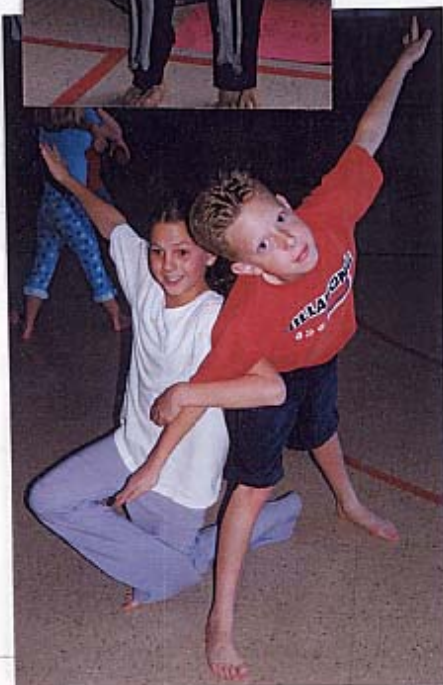

Marilyn, Ashlee and Braiden create shapes with the paper dancers. V

Sierra shows single focus in her balanced shape. >

< Tesha and Austin create a partner shape.

Marilyn and McKay leap through the air.

< Tazimin and Patrick follow Fred Simpson (Baba Fred) in a drumming exercise

V Alex, Felipe and Devon beat away!

Caz, Kylie, Colter, Patrick, Coleman and Erin perform in our Arts Sharing Day.

Our arts classes are going great! The students in Mrs. Powell's, Mrs. Marsh's, Mrs. Craig's, and Mrs. Sterling's classes meet every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday for their art rotations. The students in Mrs. Beyal's, Mrs. Creer's, Mr. Ballard's, and Mrs. Painter's classes are trying a new schedule this year. Instead of having one art form for 30 days, these students have one art form 1 day per week. For instance, the students in Mrs. Beyal's village have dance on Mondays, music on Tuesdays, theater on Wednesdays, and visual arts on Thursdays.

The students in Mr. Roberts', Mrs. Flinders', and Mrs. Frey's classes meet every Monday through Thursday and have each art form for 30 days. Mrs. Christensen from Spanish Fork Youth Theater comes in and teaches theater for these students.

From September 27 through December 13 we had four great artists come every Friday to teach three 1 hour classes. The students chose from the following: 1) Creative Dance—Marilyn Barrett, a dancer and professor of Dance at BYU. 2) Theater—Margaret Crowell, an actress and specialist in Reader's Theater from Salt Lake City. 3) Music—Fred (Baba Fred) Simpson, an African drummer from Salt Lake City. And 4) Visual Arts—Liberty Blake, an artist from Heber. Every student had a wonderful experience and we had a great sharing day on December 13th. All four artists loved working with our students.

Libby gives feedback to Marcus.

Jessica, Megan, and Hannah Show off their portfolios.

Soar with the Eagles!

Rees Elementary School
185 East 400 North
Spanish Fork, Utah 84660

Phone: 801-798-4055
Fax: 801-798-4056
Email: jeff.ballard@nebo.edu